INVESTITURE AT GOVT. HOUSE

HON. MR. EDWIN TAYLOR DECORATED

INSIGNIA OF C.M.G. RECEIVED FROM GOVERNOR

The presentation of the Insignia of a Companion of the Most Distinguished Order of St. Michael and St. George to the Hon. Mr. Edwin Taylor, Colonial Treasurer, by His Excellency the Governor, Sir Andrew Caldecott, Kt., C.M.G., C.B.E., took place at Government House this morning before a most distinguished gathering. The presentation took place in the Reception Hall, the gathering being seated on two sides of a walk leading to a dais. On the stroke of 11.45 a.m., the Chief Justice's Mace-Bearer, Mr. W. W. Hirst, led the procession into the Hall, being followed by the Governor's A.D.C., Capt. W. J. R. Cragg, carrying the Insignia, and the Governor's Private Secretary, Mr. H. V. Crutwell, carrying the Royal Grant of Dignity.

They were followed by His Excellency the Governor supported on his right and left hands by His Lordship the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, Kt., and the General Officer Commanding the Troops, Major General A. W. Bartholomew, C.B., C.M.G., C.B.E., D.S.O., the General's A.D.C., and the Governor's Extra A.D.C., Lieut. H. A. de B. Botelho, H.K.V.D.C.

On mounting the dais, the processionists took up their positions with His Excellency the Governor sitting in the centre, with the G. O. C. on his right and the Chief Justice on his left, while the Governor's A. D. C. with Insignia was on the extreme right, and the Governor's Secretary with Royal Grant of Dignity, on the extreme left.

As soon as Their Excellencies and His Honour the Chief Justice were seated, the recipient, the Hon. Mr. Edwin Taylor, supported on the right and left by the Hon. Dr. A. R. Wellington, C.M.G., and the Hon. Dr. R. H. Kotewall, C.M.G., LL.D., advanced to the foot of the dais where they remained standing.

GOVERNOR'S SPEECH
The Governor and the whole assembly then rose and the Band of the Royal Ulster Rifles, which was in attendance outside the verandah, played the first six bars of the National Anthem. The Governor then turned to the Chief Justice (Continued on Page 12)

NEW NORTHERN AIR SERVICE

Absolute Repudiation Of Alleged Plan

[From A Special Correspondent]

Canton, To-day. Mr. Lee Sze-ho, the Chairman of the Economic Committee for Hopen and Chahar, denies that he has signed any agreement with the Japanese authorities for the North China-Manchurian air service. He stated that the proposed Hui Tung Company would be an ordinary company organised under the Chinese Company Ordinances. The Nanking Government holds that the Economic Committee under the Hopen-Chahar Political Council is not authorised to arrange any agreement or to organise any company of this kind, and the absolute repudiation of any such plan is announced.

The discussions were to have been continued yesterday and to-day. — Reuter's Bulletin Service.

FRANCE LOSING HER ALLIES?

A LITTLE ENTENTE AGREEMENT

NEW POLICY TO PROTECT CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Paris, To-day.

Fears that the recently more pronounced Franco-Soviet friendship may cost France, two other allies in addition to Belgium are expressed in the newspapers in connection with the news from Bucharest that the Rumanian Premier, M. Tatarescu, has gone to Belgrade on an unheralded secret mission, believed to mark the new policy since M. Titulescu has been dropped.

Well-informed circles in Bucharest express the opinion that Rumania and Yugoslavia are on the eve of a new agreement on a policy of greater reserve towards the Soviets. M. Tatarescu's visit is alleged to have the object of crystallising the agreement to enable King Carol, who is visiting Prague at the end of the month, to face Dr. Benes, the President of Czechoslovakia, with a fait accompli.

ANOTHER LINK

Bucharest: A further link in the chain of measures to protect Czechoslovakia from sudden attack is expected to be forged when King Carol of Rumania goes to Prague at the end of the month. It is understood that agreement has been reached between Rumania, Yugoslavia and Czechoslovakia for the construction of a strategic bridge across the Danube at Turnu-Severin, linking Yugoslavia and Rumania, and for the building of a railway across North Rumania to Czechoslovakia, whereby, in the event of a sudden attack on Czechoslovakia, troops and supplies from both Rumania and Yugoslavia could be rushed to her aid. ### COMMUNAL RIOTS IN BOMBAY

Peace Almost Fully Restored

Bombay, To-day.

Peace has been almost fully restored, after a week of uproar, in which 61 people were killed, 550 wounded and 1,200 arrested, while 100 shops were looted and the fire-brigade was called out 71 times. — Reuter's Bulletin Service.

Detailed arrangements for the reception of the distinguished visitors at Kowloon and Victoria are in course of preparation, and the fire-brigade will be issued in due course.

DEFENCE OF MADRID DEBATED

ECHO OF SOVIET THREAT OF WITHDRAWAL

M. DELBOS CLOSELY QUESTIONED ON FRANCE'S ATTITUDE

Rabat, To-day.

Statements alleging dissension among the Government leaders in Madrid have been broadcast from Radio Seville. It is stated that violent arguments are proceeding between Senor Largo Caballero, the Premier, who wants to defend the capital, and Senor Prieto, who wishes to retreat.

It is announced that considerable nervousness prevails in the capital. The population is staging demonstrations each time the routed Militiamen arrive back in the city. The wireless station added that the impression is that the end of Madrid is very near. Afterwards the resistance will be transferred to Catalonia, which will pay with its ruin for the liberties granted to it by Madrid.

Paris: Questioned at a meeting of the Foreign Affairs Committee of the Chamber with regard to France's position if Russia withdrew from the non-intervention committee, the Foreign Minister, M. Delbos, said that the Franco-Soviet Pact became operative only if Russian territory were attacked, and at present there was no question of that. He pointed out that the Pact was within the framework of the League, and any question of aggression would have to be thrashed out.

Asked what would happen if the Soviet intervened in favour of Madrid or Barcelona and a dispute arose between the Soviet and a Central Power, M. Delbos said that each of the contracting parties retained the liberty to determine exactly what constituted aggression, and thus eventual assistance was in no way automatic. Replying to queries as to what would happen if Madrid fell and Catalonia appealed to France for assistance, M. Delbos declared that France would do nothing without consulting Britain and the non-intervention Powers.

Berlin: Germany, replying to the accusations made before the non-intervention committee, describes the allegations as completely without foundation and rejects them with the utmost firmness. At the same time the German Government has communicated to the committee a long list of cases based on comprehensive material in its possession, in which it is declared that the arms embargo has been flagrantly violated by the Soviet. — Reuter.

PLEASANT SURPRISE FOR SHIPS CREWS

Abolition Of Remainder Of 1931 Salary Cuts

London, To-day.

The crews aboard the P. and O. and British India Steam Navigation Companies were pleasantly surprised by a radio message from the chairman, Sir Alexander Shaw, yesterday, announcing the abolition of the remainder of the salary cuts which were imposed in 1931. — Reuter.

MADRID'S LAST STRONGHOLD

Insurgent Attack Yesterday

RED MILITIA REPORTED DEMORALISED

Lisbon, To-day.

The insurgents were expected to attack yesterday Peguerinos, Navas del Marques, Santa Maria de Almada about six miles west of Escorial, the last stronghold of Madrid's outer line of defence. Reuter's correspondent with the insurgents reports many militia demoralisations, for example, Tuesday's attack on Chapinaria, in which 6,000 Militia were repulsed with the loss of 300 by 200 Moors and Legionaries. He states that the Militia abandoned many obsolete French machine-guns when they were charged with fixed bayonets by the insurgents, singing "death songs." Several Frenchmen and three Italians were taken prisoner by the insurgents and executed.

Madrid: The Government claims that the Asturian miners have cut the communications between the insurgents in Oviedo and the relief columns. Miners attacking the insurgents at Mount Naranco, Escañedo, and Cuspide drove the rebels from their fortified positions at Cuspide, killing 81 people. — Reuter.

PRESIDENT FOR BARCELONA

Paris: That the President of the Spanish Republic, Don Manuel Azana, has decided to stay in Barcelona appears to be indicated by the latest reports reaching here, which state that officials for the President and his staff have been prepared in the Catalan capital. — Trans-Ocean Service.

FIFTH MEETING AT NANKING

MODIFIED JAPANESE PROPOSALS

REJECTED BY MR. CHANG CHUN

(By A Special Correspondent)

Canton, To-day.

Before the fifth meeting between Mr. Chang Chun and Mr. Kawagoe took place, Captain Satoh, the Japanese Naval Attaché, flew to Nanking from Shanghai to see Mr. S. Kawagoe, the Japanese Ambassador to China, yesterday morning, to exchange views with the latter with regard to Sino-Japanese relations. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon, Mr. Kawagoe called on Mr. Chang Chun, the Chinese Foreign Minister, for the fifth discussion of outstanding problems between the two countries, and their discussion lasted more than two hours. Mr. Kawagoe left the Chinese Foreign Office at 5.20 p.m.

It is reported that immediately after his return to his Embassy, Mr. Kawagoe held a meeting there, and Mr. Y. Suma, Secretary-General to the Japanese Ambassador and concurrently Japanese Consul-General at Nanking, was asked to go to Shanghai last night en route to Japan to-day so as to report to the Japanese Government the details of these two recent Chang Chun-Kawagoe meetings.

COMPLAINTS IN FENGTAI

Residences Damaged By Foreigners

SHANTUNG SUPPORTS NANKING

[From A Special Correspondent]

Canton, To-day.

Following the occupation of Chinese residences by the Japanese and Koreans in Fengtai, a number of Chinese have appealed to the Hopen-Chahar Political Council, complaining that their houses in the Eastern suburbs of Tientsin have been damaged by foreigners.

To avoid further trouble and misunderstanding among the Chinese people towards the coming manoeuvres of the Japanese troops on Sunday next, the Hopen-Chahar Political Council will send a company of officials with the Japanese troops, so as to explain the matter to the Chinese during the manoeuvres whenever this is necessary.

It is definitely reported that General Han Fu-chai, Pacification Commissioner for Shantung Province, has announced his support of the Central Government, and five divisions of his present troops in Shantung will be sent to Hopen Province for further training, being equipped with modern weapons by the Military Affairs Commission. To replace them Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek (Continued on Page 9)

STOP PRESS

The M.C.C. have scored 47 without loss. Leslie Ames is not playing owing to a slight stiffness in the back. He is also in indifferent health, but it is nothing serious. Fagg, also of Kent, is keeping wicket. Later: Lunch: 93 for 2. — Reuter.

Peiping, To-day. — The Hui Tung Company, a Sino-Japanese concern which will operate a through air service between North China and Manchuria, is being inaugurated to-morrow at Tientsin, where it will have its headquarters. General Suang Yun-yung, commander of the Hopen Peace Preservation Corps, will be the President and a Japanese named Kodama Vice-President. — Reuter.

DISPUTE ABOUT FOOTPATH

Right To Walk Over Duke's Farm

A footpath at Silchester, Hants, is the subject of a dispute in which the Duke of Wellington and the Basingstoke Rural District Council are concerned.

The path passes through Manor Farm, owned by the Duke, and the Silchester Parish Council claims that it is a public right of way. After an enquiry in which 10 aged people were interviewed, the Basingstoke Council decided that the path had been used by the public without interference for 60 years.

The council has now decided, if the right of way is not admitted, to establish it by appointing a councillor to walk through the farm on an appointed date. It was suggested at a council meeting that the chairman, Major-Gen. Sir Wyndham Knight, should carry out this task, but Sir Wyndham only smiled.

Silchester is the site of an ancient Roman city.

DOUBLED UP WITH RHEUMATISM

Could Not Wash Himself

Now Break His Hair

So bad was his rheumatism that his friends declared he would never work again. Although he is 70 years old, he proved they were wrong. Read what he says:—

"I am seventy years of age. Last Christmas I was completely doubled up with Rheumatism. I could not brush my hair, wash myself or lift a teaspoon. People said I should never work any more. I am working harder than a young one to-day. I can shift two hundredweight about. Thanks, many thanks, to your Kruschen Salts. I take them in my tea and I have recommended them to many. I could not get in or out of bed myself, nor sit up. But see me work now—12 hours a day sometimes. Kruschen Salts have done it!"

—G. J.

Rheumatic conditions are the result of an excess of uric acid in the body. Two of the ingredients of Kruschen Salts have the power of dissolving uric acid crystals. Other ingredients have a stimulating effect on the kidneys, and assist Nature to expel these dissolved crystals through the natural channels.

THE GARBO NOT RETIRING

"Would Be Bored Doing Nothing"

ECHOES OF THALBERG'S DEATH

Rumours of Greta Garbo's retirement, as a result of Irving Thalberg's death, are disproved by a message from Hollywood stating that she has resumed work on "Camille."

—That she has returned to the studio merely to finish her present production is highly improbable.

A friend of hers said recently that he believed she would go on working indefinitely, not because she was passionately fond of work, but because, after the excitement of studio life, she would be bored doing nothing.

She certainly does not need the money. For years she has been paid about $50,000 a picture, and last contract actually provides for $50,000. Such figures are the best comment on rumours that she is "slipping" at the box office.

Miss Garbo has always been very economical—a habit acquired, perhaps, in the days when she used to lather faces for a barber. She lives in a modest bungalow in Hollywood, with only one or two servants, and only recently sold her aged car—probably not worth $30 unless admirers care to compete for it as a souvenir.

Mr. Thalberg's Death

That Miss Garbo will miss Irving Thalberg goes without saying. But as she had not made a picture for him during the last five years it is very unlikely that his death will lead to her retirement.

In other ways, however, Mr. Thalberg's death will have important repercussions. He made a practice of placing certain important stars under contract to himself personally, rather than to Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer. This applies not only to Miss Garbo, but also to Miss Shearer, Mr. Charles Laughton and others.

Miss Shearer, for personal reasons, is expected to retire, but not, according to one report, until she has fulfilled her late husband's wish by making "Jane Eyre."

Mr. Laughton was last month in Rome, studying the background for "I. Claudius." He said that his legal position was very complicated and that until he returned to London and discussed his contract with his solicitors he could make no statement.

Cinema Notes From The Theatres

"BRIDES ARE LIKE THAT"—QUEEN'S THEATRE.

This picture is one of the most hilarious screen productions of the year and abounds in riotous situations, unique episodes and a most unusual plot.

It is based on the play "Apple Sauce" by Barry Connors, which was one of the hits of the stage. The motion picture retains all the humorous angles of the original stage production and has added some more for good measure.

Ross Alexander and Anita Louise have the romantic roles, the former playing the part of a ne'er-do-well with a great gift for flattery by which he is enabled to work his way into the good graces of his town-folk, although it also gets him into plenty of trouble. Alexander handles his part with the same great competence that has characterised all his roles since he recently deserted the Broadway stage for Hollywood.

Miss Louise makes a charming small-town belle, who loves the great flatterer, but becomes engaged to his rival, when the former is presumptuous enough to buy her an engagement ring without first proposing to her. As usual she is not only beautiful to look at, but gives a finished performance. Richard Purcell is excellent in the role of the dictatorial rival.

Joseph Cawthorn gives an outstanding performance in the comedy role as the uncle of the ne'er-do-well who is constantly harassed by the shortcomings of his nephew, as also do Gene and Kathleen Lockhart as the parents of the girl.

There is a smashing climax to the story, in which the youth who refuses to work makes a great invention which wins him the plaudits of the world from his rival in a most unusual situation.

"THIRTEEN HOURS BY AIR"—STAR THEATRE.

"Thirteen Hours by Air," featuring Fred MacMurray, Joan Bennett, ZaSu Pitts, John Howard, Bennie Bartlett, Grace Bradley, Alan Baxter, Brian Donlevy, Ruth Donnelly and Fred Keating is a story of romance and intrigue on a New York-to-San Francisco transport plane, with attempts at murder and at cracking up the ship as merely two of the incidents that make the flight adventurous.

On board the plane as it takes off from New York are a girl who describes herself as a prominent socialite, but who is suspected of being involved in a big jewel theft; the nine-year-old heir to a fortune of millions and his governess; a man who describes himself as a physician, but who shows a surprising lack of medical knowledge; two other mysterious male passengers; and the crew—pilot, co-pilot and hostess.

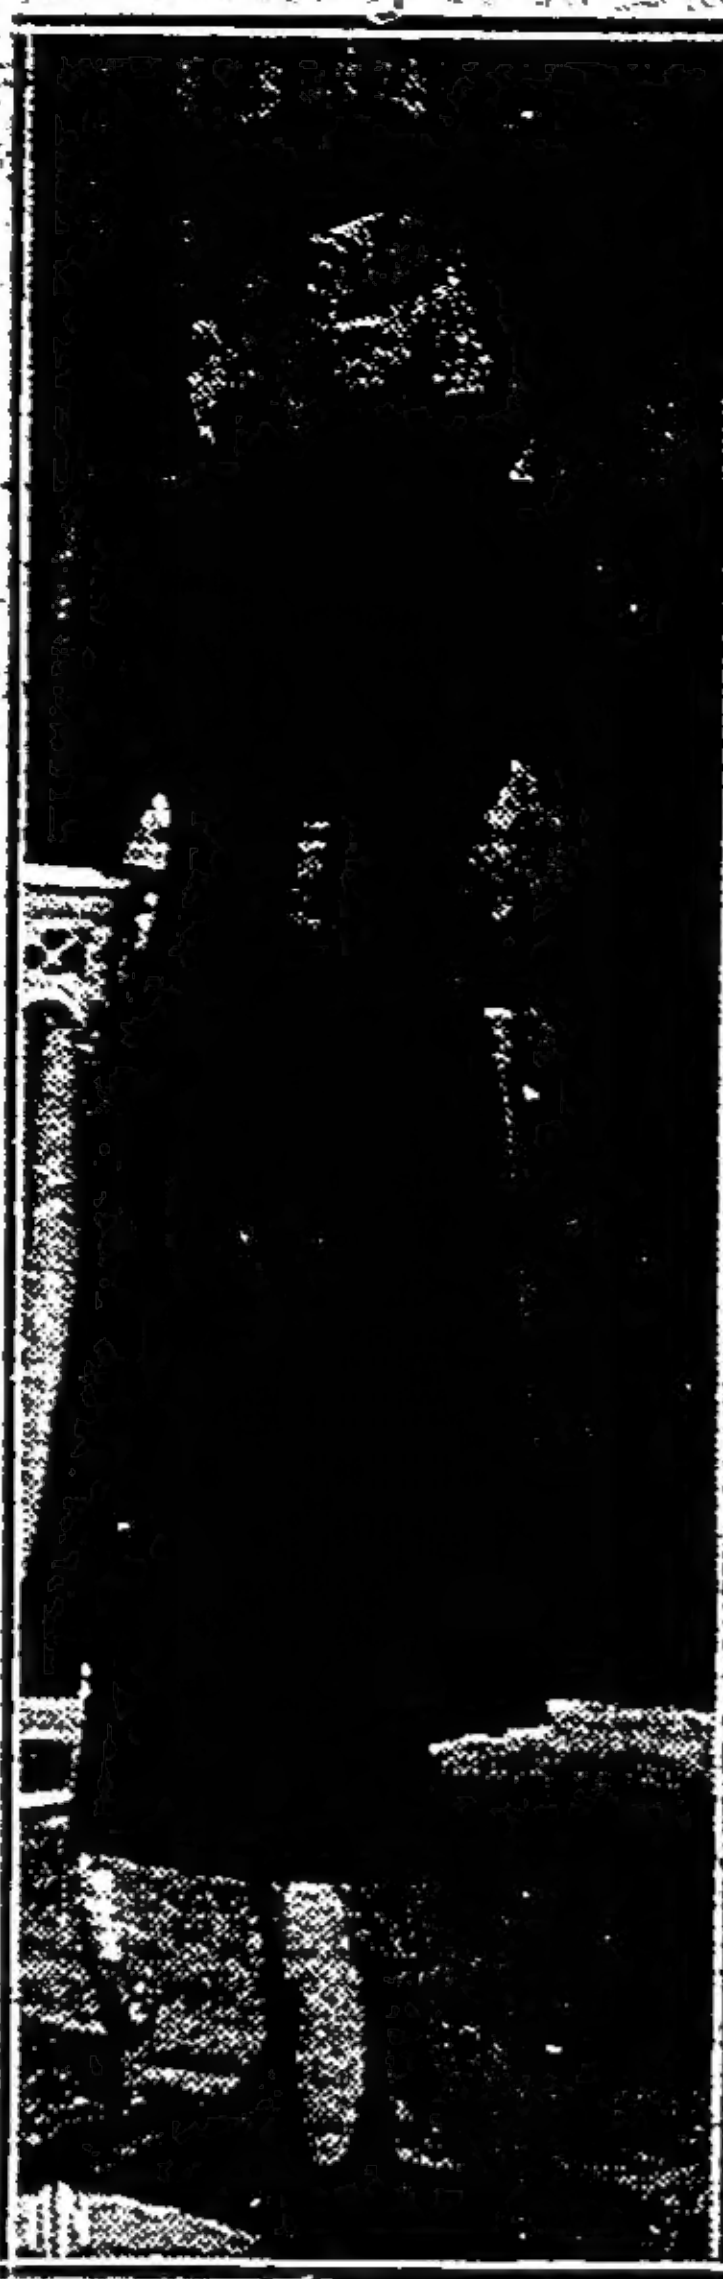

Once the ship is in the air, things begin happening quickly and furiously. There is an attempt at killing, another to crash the plane. MacMurray, the pilot, is reluctant to believe that Miss Bennett, the girl in the case, is a jewel thief. The events that follow before all this is cleared up make for one of the most exciting stories brought to the screen in months.

"COUNTERFEIT"—ALHAMBRA THEATRE.

A powerful, timely dramatization of the undercover activities of the Federal T. men, guardians of the U. S. Treasury, provides the theme of this production.

Chester Morris, Margot Grahame, Lloyd Nolan and Marina Marsh head the impressive cast, which most capably and convincingly portrays the amazing story of underworld intrigue, drama and romance.

Morris, rising to new heights of ability, enacts the role of a "man, assigned to ferret out the ring-leader of a band of counterfeiters flooding the country with bogus money. He gains the confidence of Margot Grahame, sweetheart of Lloyd Nolan, head of the ring, and is soon accepted as a member of the outlaw crew.

His task is uncomfortably complicated when he falls in love with lovely Marian Marsh, Margot's sister, who is innocently involved in the counterfeiting activities. He keeps his identity secret, however, until the evidence piles up and the zero hour strikes. In a whirlwind climax, "T" men and gunmen come to grips in a hair-raising battle, with the law emerging the victor.

Nolan delivers a superbly drawn characterisation as the mastermind counterfeiter; Margot Grahame offers her finest performance, since "The Informer," Marian Marsh is excellent in a role comparable to her offering in "Crime and Punishment" and skillful portrayals are turned in by other members of the cast, among them Claude Gillingwater, George McKay, Gene Morgan and Marc Lawrence.

"WOMEN ARE TROUBLE"—KING'S THEATRE.

"Women Are Trouble," is a newspaper story out of the ordinary in every respect and gives the audience the viewpoint on current events that is had by the working newspaper craft. And, most encouraging, it presents newspaper life without exaggeration.

Stuart Edwin performs an excellent task in his characterisation of Matt Casey, a star reporter. Florence Rice, daughter of the newspaper sports authority, Grantland Rice, portrays a girl reporter as newspaper men know the type. Paul Kelly, who "sits in" as city editor, draws a character with whom every reporter is unforgettably familiar.

The picture was produced at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios by Lucien Hubbard, not many years ago one of the most efficient newspaper men in the world. Michael Fessier, also an ex-reporter, wrote the screen play and Richard Blake, another one, wrote the adaptation.

"SUTTER'S GOLD"—ORIENTAL THEATRE.

"Sutter's Gold" tells the story of one of the most appealing figures in American annals; a man who built a fortune and was despoiled of it. It tells of his adventures, his courage, of the strange twist of fate which left him struggling for justice.

Edward Arnold as Sutter, establishes the colony of New Helvetia and builds a fabulous fortune. When gold is discovered on his estate, the treasure-seekers take his land, buildings, cattle, prac-

Safety Through Asking Bids

By Ely Culbertson

There is approximately as much profit to be derived from avoiding a tempting but un-makable slam, thus cashing in a game or, perhaps, rubber, as in reaching a slam that proves a laydown. North and South in to-day's hand managed to avoid a pitfall through the use of asking bids.

South, dealer.

Before the innovation of asking bids, South would have been in quite a dilemma on his second turn at the bidding. His partner had put in a free bid of two spades. He might well have a good spade suit and either a singleton or the king of clubs. There was no way of discovering his exact club holding.

Under the asking bid system, however, South was able to bid the opponents' suit to ask a question, rather than to give a message according to the former meaning of this bid. North, having no club control, was forced to sign off. Had North, in addition to his spade honours, held the ace of clubs, the king, or a singleton, he could have shown such holding by the correct response. In the first case, he would bid four no trump; in the latter two cases he would jump from four clubs to five spades.

Having discovered that there were two losing clubs in each hand, there was no need for South to experiment further and the contract was left at the safe level of four spades.

Typically everything. His soldiers and workers have deserted him for the gold fields. As thousands dig riches from soil belonging to Sutter, they thrust him aside ruthlessly.

He carries his fight through the courts; finally he wins, only to lose at last. During three administrations he seeks redress in Washington. When his last man-tle is wrapped about him he has become a figure for all to remember with kindly warmth.

Edward Arnold's portrayal as Sutter stands out splendidly. Binnie Barnes, the Countess who tries to bewitch him, is ravishingly provocative. She makes a love idyll in California seem like something absolutely essential to existence.

Lee Tracy contributes an entirely new sort of role for him, and it is highly entertaining. The supporting cast contains literally thousands of players.

"BOULDER DAM"—MAJESTIC THEATRE.

This picture is crammed with dynamic drama, daredevil action, heroic deeds and thrilling incidents in addition to its romance.

Patricia Ellis, who takes the lead opposite Ross Alexander, adds colourful touches to the picture by singing two songs and Ross Alexander portrays a shiffling, disgruntled automobile mechanic, cocky and sure of himself. In a fist fight with his boss, the latter strikes his head in such a way that it kills him.

The mechanic flees, and in his wanderings gets to the Boulder Dam. There he meets the pretty dance-hall singer and is inspired by love to make something of himself.

Supporting Miss Ellis, Ross Alexander and Lyle Talbot in the cast are Eddie Acutt, Henry O'Neill, Egon Brecher, Eleanor Wesselhoft, Joseph Crehan, Olin Howland, William Pawley, Ronnie Cosby and George Bruckston.

Hockey And Tennis Encounters

LOCAL SELECTIONS FOR NEXT MONTH'S VISIT

Preparations for visiting Macau during the latter part of next month have already been made by the Kowloon Indians' Tennis Club, who will meet the Portuguese Island's senior hockey team in their annual clash. It will be recalled that last season, when they visited Macau, the K.I.T.C. won by 3 goals to 1.

In addition to the above team, the K.I.T.C. will also be sending eight of their tennis players to compete in a series of men's doubles tennis matches against Macau.

This will be the first time in the history of the Kowloon Indians' Tennis Club that they will be sending a tennis team to play outside the Colony.

Tennis Team

The following players will play in the Men's Doubles: S. S. Hussain and S. A. Hussain, S. Wahab and Firdos Khan, L. M. Singh and T. M. V. Devan, Dr. H. M. Singh and M. A. Khan. It is also possible that S. A. Rumi, the former holder of the Colony open singles tennis championship, will accompany the team.

Hockey Team

The probable hockey team is as follows: Ramzan; Karnail Singh and Kishen Singh; J. Noronha, Tara Singh and A. Pereira; D. J. Noronha, S. Singh, A. Singh, J. M. Pinto and A. P. Sousa.

As the tour will not take place until the latter part of November, it is likely that there will be some changes made in the teams before they leave.

YOUNG AGUINALDO TO MEET UNKNOWN WRESTLER

Young Aguinaldo, the "Filipino Typhoon," will be seen again in action in a wrestling match at Canton next Saturday, when it will meet an unknown opponent in aid of Gen. Chiang Kai-shek's Aeroplane Fund.

Fine Interport Record

GEORGE S. RODGER, known to his more intimate friends as "Smiler," is one of the younger veterans in the First Division of the Football League in the Colony to-day, although he has been the Interport goalkeeper on and off for the past 11 years!

Born in Hong Kong, Rodger first played football in Aberdeen as an inside-left when at school. He returned to the Colony in 1916 and played for the Kowloon Football Club. The next season found Rodger in the ranks of the Hong Kong Football Club, though he did not play much soccer owing to a cartilage injury.

It was in the same season that he played for the Defence Corps team, which won the United Services' League, a competition which was inaugurated during the war. Later in the same season Rodger was given his place in the Club first eleven when A. Goldenberg ("Archie") was forced out of the game owing to an injury to his foot.

Except for the periods when he was away on leave, Rodger has played for the Club ever since. He was captain of the team which won the League championship in 1925-26 and was again skipper of the senior team last year.

He won his first Interport honours in the 1925-26 season and has since figured in the matches between the Colony and Shanghai in 1929-30, November of 1932, when he captained the first Hong Kong team to win on Shanghai soil, in February of 1933, and again last year. Rodger has played for Scotland regularly since 1925 in the "Sunday Herald" Charity Cup series and has been captain of the side on numerous occasions. A useful tennis player, he recently took up lawn bowls and played for the Football Club in the "B" team in the Second Division.

MAK WAI MING WINS HARBOUR RACE

MISS V. THIRLWELL'S TRIUMPH

CHINESE GIRL SEIZED WITH HEART ATTACK

SWIMMING a well-judged race, Mak Wai-ming, of the Hong Kong Chinese Civil Servants' Swimming Club, won the Cross Harbour race, sponsored by the Victoria Recreation Club, yesterday afternoon, and is thus the first Chinese to win this event. In beating W. Lawrence, the holder, by 1 minute 23 3/5 seconds, he caused a major sensation, while Miss V. Thirlwell repeated last year's performance when she won the Ladies' event, and came fourth in the race in which both the men and the ladies started at the same time.

There was a thrilling struggle between W. Lawrence and L. Rora-Pereira for second place. Both swimmers rounded the corner of the V.R.C. slipway together and swam neck-and-neck until a few yards from the wall, when Lawrence forged ahead to win by a narrow margin.

Miss Leung Ching-mui, the youngest competitor, finished the course last, and was awarded a special prize by Lady Caldecott, the holder, after the race, suffering from heart strain and cramp to the right thigh, and was attended by Dr. D. Laing.

After the race, the prizes were distributed by Lady Caldecott, prior to which Sir Atholl MacGregor, Chairman of the Club, thanked Lady Caldecott for coming to present the prizes. He congratulated Mak Wai-ming on winning the Men's event and paid a special compliment to W. Lawrence for his consistent performances throughout the year, remarking on his artistry. He also congratulated Miss V. Thirlwell on winning the Ladies' event again and regretted that Miss D. Hunt had been stung by a jelly-fish during the race. He understood that this was the twelfth occasion she had competed in the event, and this being so she must have started at a tender age!

He was, however, able to walk back to the jockey room unaided.

H.K.F.C. RESERVE XI IN ACTION

TO MEET R.W.F. BOYS TO-DAY

STRONG JUNIOR SIDE FOR SATURDAY

The reserve eleven of the Hong Kong Football Club will be featured in a very interesting match this afternoon when they encounter the Royal Welch Fusiliers Boys on the Club ground at 5.15 p.m.

The Club will be fielding two newcomers in Bultmann, a left-back, who is quite promising, and Enkayson, a left-winger, from Malaya, while Bertie Bell will make one of his rare appearances at inside-right.

The Club have selected a very strong team for their Second Division match on Saturday. Stone, who will be seen in the centre-forward position, is making wonderful progress, and it will not be long before he will be a worthy understudy to Elliott, the Club's senior leader.

The following are the Club's two teams:—

To-day v. R.W.F. Boys—5.15 p.m. Club ground. Stephens; Krievsky and Bultmann; Shaw, Mattioli and Parvis; Hingworth, Bell, Greenberg, Leppard and Finlayson. Saturday v. YACHT CLUB COMMODORE MAKES SPEECH

Leading from the very start, the s.s. Hinsang, of the China Navigation Company, secured first and second places to win the "Trevessa Trophy" in the 26th bi-annual race for Ship's Life Boats yesterday.

There were only four entries against seven in the previous race, which took place on April 21 last. Chief Yeoman F. J. Jones was the official time recorder. At the conclusion of the race Mr. H. S. Bouse, Commodore of the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club, made a speech and presented the trophy and a small silver cup to Mr. Reed.

Mr. Rouse said: "We have just witnessed the 26th race for the 'Trevessa' Trophy in as favourable conditions as I can remember. The time for the course (56 min. 10 sec.) is longer than the record. ## DAVIES TO UNDERGO OPERATION

PREECE AS SCRUM-HALF AND BARRY AS BACK

LEWIS AND FLOYD WILL BE DANGEROUS

(By "Referee")

THE Army are fielding a very strong team for their friendly Rugby match against the Club first fifteen on the Sookunpoo ground next Saturday and, judging by yesterday's trial at Prince Edward Road, they will be able to field two fairly strong teams if it came to the pinch.

The most notable thing about next Saturday's team is the number of positional changes and absences, although nearly all the players have represented the victorious Army Triangular Tournament side some time or other. The Army will be without the services of L. Cpl. Davies, their brilliant centre-three-quarter, who is shortly to undergo shoulder operation.

Fus. Barry, who was dropped from the Army side last year in favour of Fus. Preece, has been reinstated at full-back following yesterday's display in the trial, while Preece will make his first appearance as scrum-half. The latter gave an excellent display yesterday and should be more than a match for Bonnar, his opposite number.

What impressed me about Preece's display was his manner of passing from behind the scrum, which reminded me of Lieut. Forbes, the brilliant Navy scrum-half two seasons ago.

Fine Three Quarter Line

In Fus. Jones (47) and Fus. Kelshaw, the Army have a very fast right-wing combination, the latter having an excellent swerve and side-step, while his touch-finding was most impressive. Both these men run straight. This pair is well-balanced by the left-wing combine of Fus. Floyd, one of the finest centre three-quarters in the Colony and Spr. Boyling. Floyd was in brilliant fettle yesterday and this bodes ill for the Club defence. Boyling, who was seen at full-back and later as a wing-three-quarter, is a deadly tackle (Continued on Page 11)

Ted Drake, above, the Arsenal and England soccer leader, is one of the most bustling forwards playing football to-day.

SCRAPPY RUGBY MATCH

Fusiliers Too Good For Club

LACK OF COMBINATION SPOOLS GAME

In a one-sided Rugby match on the Club ground, the Royal Welch Fusiliers "A" beat the Club "A" by nine points (three tries) to nil, the feature of the game being the good combination of the Fusiliers forwards, who, despite the fact that they were up against a heavier side, were always on the aggressive and were a continual source of danger to the Club defence.

It would be difficult to single out any outstanding individual among the Fusiliers, but as regards the Club, they displayed very poor form with the exception of Griffiths, Andrews and Gilmore, who did their best to pull a very scattered side together.

There was no scoring in the first-half, but after the interval the Fusiliers were awarded a free kick for off-side, but Jefferies missed. Nothing daunted, however, the Fusiliers were back again and Williams broke through to score a good try, Jefferies failing to add the points.

Two More Tries

Play from this point onwards was confined to the Club's area, and the Fusiliers added further tries through Eagle and Stride, though Jefferies and Cornelius missed the resultant kicks. Towards the end the Club made Luke beat Anderson by 6 points, and Ashton by 15 to reach the final, while Fruen beat G. W. Giffen by 7 and S. Sweetman by 7, to meet Luke.

ENGLISH LEAGUE TRIUMPH

Scotland Lose 2-0 At Goodison Park

BOTH GOALS SCORED BEFORE THE INTERVAL

London, To-day.

The English League won their first match in the Inter-League series yesterday when they defeated the Scottish League at Goodison Park, Everton's ground, by two clear goals before a gathering of 25,000 spectators.

There was only one change in the teams, Smith, of Kilmarnock, replacing Simpson, of the Rangers, at left-half. Scotland won the toss, but the Englishmen were the more aggressive during the opening minutes, and the Scottish goal had some very narrow escapes, the backs playing splendidly to prevent an early goal when "Dixie" Dean, England's famous international star, headed in from very close range only to have his attempt blocked.

Then, in the 15th minute of the game, Westwood, the English Football League's inside-left, was brought down in the penalty area and Cliff Bastin gave them the lead with the resultant penalty kick.

SECOND GOAL

Twenty minutes later Westwood, while being harassed by two Scottish defenders, flicked a square cross-centre from Bastin into the net for the English League's second goal.

The Englishmen were the faster team and deserved their half time lead of 2 goals to nil.

The second half opened in a thrilling manner, both goalkeepers being called upon to make full-length saves. Male, the English League right-back, then headed out of the goal with Holdcroft, the goalkeeper, out of position.

Cliff Bastin then broke through the Scottish intermediate line in a spectacular run and crashed in a fiery shot which hit the crossbar, and a misunderstanding between the defending Scottish backs let in Richardson, but the English inside-right shot straight at Dawson, the Scottish custodian.

The latter stages of the game saw the Scottish team enjoy more of the exchanges, the Football League being content to rest on their laurels, the final whistle giving them victory by two clear goals—Reuter.

Football League: Holdcroft (Arsenal); Male (Arsenal), Cadin (Wednesday); Britton (Everton), Gee (Everton), Leen (Derby); Crooks (Derby), Richardson (Huddersfield), Dean (Rotherham), Westwood (Bolton) and Bastin (Arsenal).

Scottish League: Dawson (Rangers); Anderson (Hearts); Shaw (Airdrieonians); Gossoms (Celtic); Smith (Kilmarnock); Delaney (Celtic); Walker (Hearts); Armstrong (Aberdeen); McPhail (Rangers); Kinnear (Rangers)—Reuter.

TWO EARLIER RESULTS

In the two earlier encounters, in the same series, the Scottish League beat the Irish League on September 2 at Glasgow by 5 goals to 2. Harrison, Delaney, Armstrong, Murphy and Walker netting for the winners, while Shearer and Baird scored Ireland's goals.

On September 23, at Belfast, the Irish League beat the English Football League by 3 goals to 2, Kelly securing the "hat-trick" while Steele and Westwood scored for the losers.

Comprehensive Table Shows Form At A Glance

A comprehensive guide to the form of all Clubs in the four premier English Football League and the premier Scottish League will be found in the appended table. To assist in comparing the teams, details of how they fared in their last five matches are given.

The letters W, L, and D indicate matches won, lost and drawn respectively. Games played at home are shown in capital letters, while away games are denoted by ordinary type. The figures in brackets denote the position held by that team at the conclusion of last season, an asterisk denoting that that team has been promoted, and a dagger that that team has been relegated.

Plain Speaking On The League

At the close of his speech,
of which the full text is now available in the Home papers, at Geneva towards the end of last month, Mr. Eden put the question that really determines whether the League Covenant can be made a practicable instrument of peace. "Do the nations of the world," he asked,
"wish to establish international machinery for the settlement of disputes between them without resort to force?" At this juncture, when the League has suffered a setback, the best service is to examine why it has failed in its primary purpose.
First, the League has not been a universal body with the United States, Germany and Japan outside its membership.
Secondly, but just as important,
its members have not in the past been integrally loyal to it.
And the third defect is that too many of its members have been inclined to regard the conditions of the Covenant as denying modifications in an altered situation. Unless the League can become more comprehensive, with all its members loyal to their undertakings and facing the changes that time brings, the organisation cannot be re-vitalised. It was necessary to say these things, and Mr. Eden said them in language that is incapable of misunderstanding.

If the will to work the machinery of the League were general there could be found within the framework of the Covenant some solution of most of the problems that perplex
Europe—whether they be territorial, political or economic.
Variations in procedure would admittedly be necessary, but these are wholly secondary to the change of spirit. This is the message that Mr. Eden gave on behalf of the British Government. Pending such vital transformations we fall back on regional pacts with their precise obligations on all the signatories. These can be brought under the cognisance of the League and harmonised with the Covenant. Their advantage is that they give some promise of firm footing amid shifting sands. They provide the guarantees that in present conditions the League has shown itself unable to furnish. While asserting Britain's desire to negotiate a pact for Western Europe and to encourage similar agreements elsewhere, Mr.
Eden laid stress upon the value of peace of the re-establishment of normal financial and economic dealings. Unless this can be obtained through the League, the search for it will be continued through limited international agreements.

Frank avowal and exposition
of the British armaments policy can be a steady factor in Europe. Mr. Eden stated our purpose in the simplest of terms. We are completely re-equipping our defences, and intend to persist in that course until a general agreement is made for the reduction and limitation of armaments. Nor will we have "lot or part" in a standstill agreement that would leave other Powers, which have been arming themselves to the last man and the last gun, at the full strength they have attained. Mr. Eden's apology for using less guarded language than usual about these matters could not be interpreted by his hearers as anything but a polite form. It was vital that

MANY NEWCOMERS FOR A.D.C. SHOW

Booking for the Amateur Dramatic Club's forthcoming production of "Night Must Fall," famous play "Night Must Fall," opened with a flourish on Monday last and the number of seats already sold augurs well for public support for the latest enterprise.
With this play the A.D.C. opens its 93rd season and there is every reason to believe that "Night Must Fall" will take its place in the long line of successes produced by the Club since its foundation in 1844.

Mr. E. G. Smith-Wright, now firmly established with Hong Kong play-goers, is in charge of the production, and under his able guidance the carefully selected cast is shaping well. Most of the players are new to the Hong Kong footlights, and foremost among these is Nigel Waymouth, who comes to us with a brilliant record
from the Malta A.D.C. Ruby Mathieson is too well known in musical circles to need introduction, but we believe this will be her first appearance here in dramatic work. In Winnie Cox
we have an actress of very considerable experience in amateur work in England, while Beth Smith-Wright has earned a high place in the Shanghai Dramatic Club.

Other Players

San Pringle makes her debut in this production and Fay Grossman returns to the local stage after an absence all too long from the point of view of Hong Kong playgoers. The remainder of the male side of the cast comprises Jerry Marsh, J. Roberts and G.
Gilmour, who are shaping well in minor roles.

An effective setting for the play
has been executed by Mr. W. A.
Cornell and stage direction will again be in the experienced hands
of Mr. E. Grossman.

Performances will be given at the China Fleet Club Theatre at 9.15 p.m. sharp, on the nights of the 4th, 5th, 6th and 7th November, and seats may be booked at the Anderson Music Co.

YOUNG SAILOR'S
DEATH

Funeral At Happy
Valley

The funeral took place this morning, burial being at the Roman Catholic cemetery, of Christian Poy, 17-year-old Norwegian deck hand of the motor vessel Taishan, who met with an accident aboard the ship on Tuesday,
and later passed away at the Kowloon Hospital.

The lad fell from the shelter deck of the vessel into a deep water tank and was removed to hospital with serious injuries.

These things should be said,
that Britain should make her policy, as regards armaments, economic and political agreements and the upholding of the League, transparently clear.
We shall not escape dangers by pretending that they do not exist.

"RIGHT AND LEFT"

A London paper has been conducting a correspondence on various shots, and they have included seven partridges with one barrel and the remaining bird of the "cover" of eight with the other, and a right and left at roe-deer and woodcock.

This last is a curious but not unique experience. Other odd
"right and lefts" include:

Black-necked swan and golden plover.

Bear and blackcock (the bear
was shot with a bullet, the black-cock with a charge of No. 4 shot,
both fired from the same gun,
"right and left").

Man and boy (neither body hurt).

Donkey and pigeon.
In the last case a man had to shoot his elderly donkey. The sound of the shot disturbed a pigeon in a near-by tree, and he shot it with his second barrel.

NAMESAKES

A large number of Americans
now in London hail from American namesakes of the Cinque Ports.

It seems that in North America
there are 32 places called Dover, 10 called Hastings, three called Sandwich, five Romney and two Rye.

Special staffs at the Savoy and other West End hotels who are kept busy arranging motor tours
for their guests are frequently asked to include one or other of these places in the itinerary.

Naturally enough the visitor from Sandwich, Ill., where they make harvesters, reapers, ploughs and what not, is anxious to give "Til of Sandwich, Eng.", most ancient of the Cinque Ports, the once-over.

"Bath Of Blood"

A correspondent takes exception to the headline in last Tuesday's edition of the China Mail, when a paragraph reporting the reopening of the Italian campaign for the total subjection of Abyssinia bore the headline "Another Bath of Blood." He maintains that it was partisan, and that the business of a newspaper is the impartial presentation of news.

As the person responsible for the headline, with the utmost respect I answer: "Boosh." The business of a newspaper is the presentation of news; but to argue that a newspaper should be entirely impartial, as between any conceivable viewpoints on any conceivable question, is ridiculous.
Every newspaper worth its salt presents, besides news, very decided views on certain questions.
They may be right or wrong; but if a paper lacks sufficient courage of its convictions to take sides on certain questions which involve matters of elementary morality,
such as this, it is a very insipid, spineless institution and will very soon die of simple inertia.

The views of the China Mail on the Abyssinian slaughter are well known, and this paper has no reason to be ashamed of them.
Moreover, if the reopening of the campaign to effect the total subjection of the country does not in fact result in "Another Bath of Blood," I should be very interested to hear what my correspondent believes will eventuate—a charming and pretty game of "Kiss-in-the-Ring" and everybody having clean, girlish fun together?

The Wrong 'Un

I am taken to task by a reader
for one sentence in a note published in this column last week.
In discussing the political pull (or otherwise) of the Daily Mail I remarked that up to a short time ago "two million people a day bought the paper to see what won the 230 or who Norma Shearer's current husband was."

I am told that in discussing the matrimonial affairs of film stars (in which I am not the slightest-bit interested really) I could hardly have made a more unfortunate choice than in mentioning Miss Shearer's name. She is, I gather, unlike the general run of these people, in that she was only once married, and that most happily, to the late Mr. Irving Thalberg, the producer, who died recently. The question of Miss Shearer's "current" husband, therefore did not and does not arise.

I was thinking, of course, of women film stars and their notorious marital experiments in general, and it is unfortunate that the first name which came into my head should have been that of such a paragon among film-star wives, such an outstanding example, in fact, of a good girl in a naughty world. I therefore take back all I said or suggested—with which handsome apology I hope the incident may be considered as closed.

A Bad Break

It all comes of my not reading
my "Moving Stories," "Moving Picture Gazette," "Photoplay,"
"Cinema," "Cinema Gazette,"
"Motion Picture Gazette," "Photoplay Annual," "Who's Who in the Movies," "Talking Pictures Incorporated," "Photoplay Journal" and "Film World" with that assiduity which the subject of film-stars and their husbands and wives requires.
I should certainly not have made such a tremendous gaffe if I had simply referred to them, together with the "Talkie Gazette," "Moving Picture Journal," "Cinema Annual Incorporated," "Photoplays
for All," "Film Fun," "Film Humour," "Film Vulgarities,"
"Film Filt" and "Film Dirt," all of which are amply displayed on our book-stalls for the delectation of local youth, and may be had for sums ranging from 20 cents to a couple of dollars. Any or all of them would have been only too anxious to inform me "Who's Whose" in Hollywood, with special reference to Miss Loretta Young's exact age and height, Miss Greta Garbo's eyebrows and Miss Joan

Incidentally, I have not had such a tremendous thrill for years
as I experienced when I read recently that Miss Glenda Farrell and Mr. Dick Powell, whose crooning makes me go all gaga, had entered upon the holy state of matrimony, causing forty million hearts from China to Peru, not to mention Tierra del Fuego and Patagonia, to flutter as one in delicious twiddles of sympathy.

NEW CAMPAIGN IN ENGLAND

Physical Fitness In Schools

EVERY ENCOURAGEMENT BY GOVERNMENT

London, To-day. The President of the Board of Education, in a speech at the opening yesterday of the new Central School for 1,000 children, designed on modern lines and occupying over 16 acres, referred to the Government's new campaign for physical fitness. He said that the Board of Education was determined to give every possible assistance and encouragement to the campaign and instanced the spacious grounds and playing-fields and excellent gymnasium equipment of the new school as evidence of what had been and was being done already.

The foundation of any scheme for physical education in Great Britain must be the school. The test of success would be how far children, after leaving school, wanted to continue recreative physical exercise, for the British tradition was one of voluntary action and it would be no use their imitating the example of countries with the ideology of State control. — British Wireless Service.

BRITISH NATIONAL RECOVERY

Postal Receipts Show Increases

London, To-day. The steady progress of national recovery is well illustrated by the postal receipts, which, with three exceptions only, have been higher than in the corresponding month a year earlier for each month since the end of 1932. The increase in September, compared with September 1935, was 5.1 per cent, and three preceding months each showed an increase of 5.2 per cent, compared with the corresponding months of last year. — British Wireless Service.

It is hoped that the work will be finished in 1939. — British Wireless Service.

"CHINA PRESS" SILVER JUBILEE NUMBER

FINE PRODUCTION BY SHANGHAI PAPER

The special Silver Jubilee supplement of the China Press (Shanghai) has reached us, and we give a most hearty welcome to as fine a production in the journalistic line as this part of the East is ever likely to see. The jubilee of the paper most happily coincides with the Silver Jubilee of the Republic of China, and every advantage has been taken of this fact by the producers of the jubilee number.

The special supplement consists of over 200 pages, containing a large number of special articles from officials and non-officials in China. They range from Madame Chiang Kai-shek, who writes on the New Life Movement and the role of Chinese women, through Dr. Sun Fo, President of the Legislative Yuan, Dr. H. H. Kung, Minister of Finance, and Dr. Wang Shi-chieh, Minister of Education, to Miss Pearl Buck and Sven Hedin, the famous explorer.

Very High Standard. As the names of these and the many other contributors testify, the whole production is well informed and authoritative. Every phase of China's emergence during the last 25 years is touched upon. Industry, communications, education, the growth of the capital and of provincial centres, art, literature and the drama are individually examined in well-written articles, and the whole production is of a very high technical standard. In addition there is a special section devoted to the history and record of the China Press itself.

Congratulations on this special number from foreign diplomats accredited to the country are printed, a number in facsimile, as well as good wishes from other press organs throughout the length and breadth of the land.

The whole production is printed on art paper, the cover being of silver foil. Copies are obtainable at the China Press, 160 Avenue Edward VII, Shanghai at $5 (Chinese currency) per copy, plus postage of 15 cents a copy for China and of $1.50 per copy for foreign countries.

SENTENCE ON A COUNCILLOR

"Contract" Case May Lead To Enquiry

MINISTRY'S ACTION

The case in which a Bethnal Green councillor was sentenced recently to six months' hard labour for soliciting £25 as a reward for influencing the Council to accept an electricity tender is being considered by the Ministry of Health with a view to a further investigation.

The councillor was Andrew Walter Bradshaw, a chemist, aged 44. Another man, Thomas Shaw, received a similar sentence.

The following statement was made to the Ministry of Health last month:

"The Minister is interested in this matter from the general point of view of maintaining the high standard of municipal government in this country."

"The Government auditor is also interested from the point of view of the accounts of the authority."

"Representatives of the Minister and of the auditor were in court during part of the proceedings."

"As regards the holding of a general enquiry into 'graft,' this question is raised by the case, but it would be premature to say that it has been decided to take action on those lines."

"The matter is obviously one that requires consideration." A general enquiry into the methods of local authorities in considering and accepting tenders from contractors is considered to be unlikely.

Warning. But there will be further investigation in Bethnal Green.

It is probable that the Ministry will bring specially to the notice of local authorities the vital necessity of keeping the placing of contracts above all suspicion, failing which the most searching investigation will be made.

ABRUPT END TO RAPE CASE

Girl's Story Not Corroborated

CHIEF JUSTICE'S REMARKS

There was an abrupt ending, at the Criminal Sessions yesterday, to the trial of Fusilier William Clifford Morgan. Royal Welch Fusilier on a charge of rape, when His Honour the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, directed the jury to return a formal verdict of not guilty on the ground of lack of corroborative evidence.

Morgan was accused of having had carnal knowledge of an 18-year-old girl, Li Fuk-lin, alias Li Yuet-lin, at Laichikok on September 28, without her consent.

Mr. E. H. Williams, Assistant Attorney-General, appeared for the Crown, and the accused was represented by Mr. Leo D'Almada, jun., instructed by Mr. G. S. Ford, of Messrs. Wilkinson and Grist.

The following jury was empanelled: Messrs. H. Nish (Foreman), Kwek Kiam-seng, S. Kame-mura, C. F. do Rozario, M. Ber-rux, V. T. Low and N. W. Smyth.

In the course of his remarks His Lordship said: I am quite satisfied that on the evidence, I would not be justified in leaving this case to the jury. There is no charge easier to bring than one such as this and there is no case more difficult to meet, and the law has wisely ordained as a rule of practice that there must be corroboration. Not only is there no corroboration in this case, but the girl's story is a mass of contradictions which no person of intelligence could possibly accept as the true story. I propose to direct the jury here and now that it is their duty to formally return a verdict of not guilty against the accused.

Clean Record

After the jury had done so, His Lordship, addressing Morgan, said: Morgan, you are discharged. I think it is only right that in this case I should say a word or two of my own view about it. I am not going to say that this is a case which ought to have been dropped, for the authorities must, on a serious allegation such as this, bring you forward in order for you to establish your innocence at the hands of the jury who are your fellow citizens. There is not the slightest foundation, in my considered judgment, for any one of the allegations that have been deliberately and recklessly brought against you. As far as I am concerned you leave this Court with an absolutely clean record. You are discharged, and may go.

and, while not quite as fast as van Leeuwen, the Club right-wing three-quarter, should more than hold his own in defence.

The Army halves are an entirely new combination — L/Cpl. Lewis, who is every bit as fast as L/Cpl. Davies and who was the finest back on view yesterday, and Fus. Preece, the former Army back who will play at the base of the scrum.

The Forwards

Three of Saturday's selections for the pack were not on view yesterday. Lieut. Lincoln, the Army captain, was on the touch-line yesterday viewing the trials, while both Capt. Gillespie, R.E., and Cpl. Harrison, R.E., were unable to be present. All three represented the Army in the Triangular Tournament last season.

Fus. Watkins will be hooking this Saturday and he is the only real newcomer to the team. On yesterday's showing he was not very impressive, although he should do better in his second outing.

The following is the Army team for Saturday:

Fus. Barry; Fus. Jones (47); Fus. Kelsaw; Fus. Floyd and Spr. Boyling; L/Cpl. Lewis and Fus. Preece; Lieut. Lincoln (Captain); Fus. Watkins; Spr. Cullinan; Fus. Bebb; Fus. Chaney; Fus. Morgan; Capt. Gillespie and Cpl. Harrison.

"I am certain, however, that Mr. Reed of the S.S. Hinsang will remember to-day, because of its association with the latter anniversary.

"On behalf of the Royal Hong Kong Yacht Club I now ask Mr. Reed of the S.S. Hinsang to receive the trophy and hand it to his Marine Superintendent for safe custody. This small souvenir, we hope, will be his for many years to come, serving to remind him of this afternoon and the anniversary that falls on this date.

In order to satisfy his desire to gather information about the life, manners and customs of the various races in the world, Maung Maung, a young Burmese, started out from Rangoon, his native city, in 1931 at the age of 19, on a tour of the world. He has now visited almost every place of interest in the East and arrived in Hong Kong from Canton on Tuesday.

It took him a year to cross Burma into Siam. He spent six months hiking and cycling in the latter country, touching at Cheng-mai, Chengrai, Lampang and Labun, before returning to the Burmese frontier. He then went to India and travelled all over the country. Latterly he has been in China. In Yunnan he ran into Chinese bandits, and he reckons he has covered 20,000 miles on foot and 3,000 miles by cycle. He will leave for French Indo-China to-morrow.

Conquer that Weakness! You can—with SANATOGEN

"There is abundant evidence of the value of Sanatogen as a restorative and food, and more particularly in cases of general debility".

—writes "The Lancet."

"A Great Strengthening", wrote the Hon. Sir F. A. Robertson, Judge of the Chief Court, Lahore, about Sanatogen.

"Sanatogen gives a distinct restorative effect", writes Sir Luke White.

"My nurses and myself were very much struck with my rapid improvement with Sanatogen", writes the wife of a well-known doctor, Mrs. C. A. M. Phillips.

"A Wonder-worker" are the words in which Mr. Coulson Kernahan, the well-known author, describes Sanatogen.

Remember that these letters—and thousands similar—were written by people who, before the use of Sanatogen, were just as sceptical as you may be of its tonic effects. But they decided to try Sanatogen and they got back their health and vigour.

"Sanatogen"—as a well-known London physician puts it—"goes straight to the core of well-being, namely, the cells—and builds these up into a permanent and solid fabric of health."

Sanatogen will build up your Health lastingly. Over 25,000 physicians support this claim with their written commendation.

SANATOGEN will always do you good and cannot possibly do harm.

Obtainable at all Chemists
